All Dead In Crash

Missing Plane Found On Peak

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Wreckage of an airliner that hit a mountain peak in a storm last night was found this morning. Sheriff's deputies said all 28 persons aboard were dead.

The propjet Bonanza Airlines plane vanished during a snowstorm just before it was due to land on a flight from Phoenix.

Searchers spotted the wreckage shortly after dawn.

Helicopters flew to the scene and began flying bodies to a lower level.

The scene is about 16 miles southwest of Las Vegas near the railroad community of Arden.

The terrain is so rugged in that area that jeeps could not reach the scene.

Searchers were directed to the area by a motorist who told officers he saw the plane skimming the ground in a whirl of snow eight miles south of the city. The witness said the plane had one wheel down, as if it were trying to land.

The Fairchild F27, Bonanza Airlines' Flight 114 from Phoenix, Ariz., was three minutes from a landing at McCarran Field when it vanished from the radar screen at 8:27 p.m.

The plane was heading northeast, dropping down into the mountain-rimmed Las Vegas valley for an instrument landing.

Sheriff's officers said Bob Baker, a Las Vegas man, told them: "I was driving on Highway 91 between 8 and 8:30 p.m. when I saw a Bonanza plane, 70 to 100 feet off the ground, heading southeast. There were no landing lights on. One landing gear was down."

Baker's location was about where the plane was last sighted on radar but his sighting gave the plane a different direction: south instead of north.

Sheriff's jeeps and squad cars gathered on Highway 91—the road between Los Angeles and Las Vegas—near the railroad-siding settlement of Arden, where Baker said he had seen the plane.

The season's first snow was falling heavily as the search was launched. Soon after the F27 disappeared McCarran Field was closed to traffic. Another Bonanza plane, Flight 104, landed north of the city at Nellis Air Force Base.

The highway and the railroad run through the bottom of the 4,500-foot-high valley, which is within sight of the neon glow of the Las Vegas strip to the north. Most of the valley is open country where a plane could possibly survive a forced landing.

German Link To Red China Under Study

West Germany Seeks to Renew Trade Contracts

BERLIN (AP)—West Germany wants to renew official contacts with Red China in the spring, a top official of the Bonn government reports. An exchange of trade missions could result, but the chief goal is political.

Talks between the two governments would not take place until Chancellor Ludwig Erhard explained his position to President Johnson, the official said.

"Now that the American elections are over, we can move ahead in our dealings with Red China," he added.

West Germany and Red China signed a one-year trade agreement in 1957, but it was not renewed. German and Chinese officials held preliminary talks earlier this year. The Chinese Communists said then they were willing to sign a new trade agreement with West Germany providing for an exchange of trade missions and including a clause stating that West Berlin is considered economically and politically part of West Germany.

West Germany already has trade agreements containing such a clause with the Communist governments of Poland, Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria. This has undermined the Soviet and East German position that Germany is divided into three separate units—East and West Germany and West Berlin.

Some West German officials have said an exchange of trade missions between Bonn and Peking would have little trade significance but would be politically important.

These officials feel it would be an overture to France that would not get Bonn into much trouble with the United States.

Seven Hurt In Accident On North 65

A two-car collision just north of Sedalia at 10:20 a.m. Monday sent seven persons to Bothwell Hospital including the drivers of both vehicles.

Sgt. E. W. Van Winkle of the Missouri Highway Patrol, who investigated, listed the autos as a 1962 Plymouth sedan, being driven south by Clarence Howard Wells, 37, 626 East 16th, and a 1962 Ford sedan, being driven north by Charles Henry Eck, Jr., 21, Indianapolis, Ind.

Wells sustained a scalp laceration and a fractured right shoulder. His four-year-old son, Donald Craig Wells, had a fractured collar bone and a possible head injury.

Eck, the driver of the other car, had a laceration to the chin and scalp.

Four other passengers injured in the Eck car were: Charles Willis Blackwell, 22, laceration to the right eye and scalp, bruised elbow; Danie Lee Blackwell, 15, laceration to the forehead and left knee, bruised elbow; Charles Henry Eck, 53, severe laceration above the left eye; and Mrs. Irene Frances Eck, 51, laceration of the forehead and both legs. All were from Indianapolis.

The injured were brought to Bothwell Hospital in an Ewing ambulance. Hospital officials admitted all seven, but had no immediate report of any of their conditions.

The accident occurred nine-tenths of a mile south of the H and HH junction where re-located Highway 65 and the old highway join.

Execution Delayed In Congo

Dr. Paul Carlson Labeled Spy By Communist Rebels

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP)—Stanleyville Radio said today that the Congolese rebel government "has agreed in principle to an offer of the United States consul" to negotiate over the life of American missionary, Dr. Paul Carlson. The radio announced earlier in the day it planned to execute him today as a spy.

The broadcast, monitored here, said the rebel government has appointed its foreign minister, Thomas Kanza, as its negotiator.

U.S. Embassy officials in Leopoldville said Carlson, 36, belonged to the Protestant mission Evangelique de L'Ubangi which has its headquarters at the Covenant World Mission in Chicago.

They said Carlson's only military experience was a two-year hitch in the Navy between 1946 and 1948.

Carlson was captured by the rebels on Sept. 21 at Yakoma, north of Stanleyville on the Congo's border with the Central African Republic. He had radi- oed earlier that he intended to stay behind to treat sick and wounded.

Christophe Bénye, self-proclaimed president of the Communist-backed "Congolese Peoples' Republic" in Stanleyville, announced last month that Carlson was being held in the rebel capital, awaiting trial.

In Chicago, Dr. Arden Almquist, executive secretary of Covenant World Missions, said Carlson "definitely is not a spy." "Part of his difficulty may be that we have radio communication between our various mission stations and we have transmitters," he said.

"It's possible the use of the transmitters or rebel knowledge be interpreted by them to mean that he is spying."

BULLETIN

MOSCOW (AP)—The new Kremlin regime today added three new members to its highest councils and abolished structural changes in the Soviet Communist party instituted by former Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

A one-day secret meeting of the Communist party's Central Committee made Ukrainian party boss Pyotr Shelest and one-time Soviet secret police chief Alexander Shelepin members of the all-powerful party Presidium.

Moscow city Communist boss Pyotr N. Demichev was moved up to the rank of candidate member of the Presidium.

Khrushchev's son-in-law, Alexei Adzhubel, former editor of the government newspaper Izvestia, was thrown out of the Central Committee "for errors committed in his work."

7 Persons Die In State Accidents

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Seven persons died in traffic accidents in Missouri over the weekend.

Mrs. Juanita West, 42, of Winston, Mo., died Sunday in a two-car accident on highway 69 five miles south of Pattonburg.

The other driver, Leland Bert McDowell, 29, of Independence, Mo., his wife Shirley, 29, and their daughter Debbie, 7, were seriously injured.

Sheriff Leland Houghton of Daviess County said the West car made a left turn in the path of McDowell's auto and was struck broadside.

Leo White, 62, of Mineral Point, Mo., was killed Sunday night when he was struck by a car while walking across U.S. 67 just outside Flat River. The Highway Patrol said the driver was St. Elmo Keating, 52, of Afton.

Lestir W. Martin, of Pottersville, Ark., died Sunday of injuries suffered Saturday night in a two-car crash on U.S. 160 about six miles southwest of West Plains.

Martin was a passenger in a car driven by Richard Johnson, 43, of Pottersville, Mo. Johnson was making a left turn when his car was hit broadside by one driven by Clifford R. Bates, 24, of West Plains.

A St. Louis area man was killed Sunday and three persons seriously injured in a head-on crash on U.S. 66 bypass in St. Louis County. The victim was James Overby, 73, of Ferguson, a passenger in a car (Please turn to Page 2, Col. 8)

Enumerators Named For Ag' Census

Enumerators have been named in Pettis County for the 1964 Census of Agriculture, Crew Leader Dorothea Durley said Monday.

The following persons have been appointed:

John Greer, Mrs. Frances Wood, Mrs. Altha Ream, Mrs. Hazel Demand, Mrs. Merle Templeton, Mrs. Linda McCol- lester, Mrs. Mildred V. Clifford, Mrs. Ruth Grupe, Mrs. Ida Ann Guier, Mrs. Frances Van Slyke, Robert Ferguson, Mrs. Betty Alexander, Eldon C. DeMott and Aron R. Smith.

Enumerators in Pettis County belong to a force of 23,000 throughout the nation employed temporarily by the U. S. Bureau of the Census for this year's Census of Agriculture.

Enumerators are key workers in an agriculture census. It is the enumerator's responsibility to locate every farm within an enumeration district assigned to him (or her), determine if the operator of the farm has answered all questions on a questionnaire that will be mailed to the farmer by the Census Bureau, help the farmer complete any unanswered questions on the form, check answers for accuracy, and deliver the form to the Census Bureau.

A Census of Agriculture is taken every five years in the years ending in "4" and "9" to gather needed, up-to-date information on the nation's agricultural resources and production. Such information is vital in making decisions affecting many segments of the U.S. economy. Data gathered include the number and size of farms, acreage and harvest of crops, livestock inventory, information on farm equipment and improvements, farm products sold, and on some production expenditures. Information also will be collected on use of fertilizers, insecticides, and herbicides.

The enumerators will be trained in a special 4-day home study course designed to prepare them for the farm census, their crew leader said.

Burch Claims Contract On GOP Reins

Goldwater Backs Chairman In Bid To Retain Seat

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater's support of Dean Burch's claim that he has "a four-year contract" to head the Republican National Committee pushed bickering Republicans today toward a showdown over control of their party machinery.

Burch said Sunday he will fight back if anyone tries to oust him.

Among others, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, former Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and Sen. Jacob K. Javits of New York made it clear they will use all the influence they have to force a change in leadership of the national committee.

Goldwater said on his return Sunday night from a Jamaican vacation after his defeat by President Johnson that the party should honor Burch's "contract." Goldwater picked Burch for the chairmanship after his own nomination at the San Francisco convention and the committee in turn elected the Phoenix, Ariz., lawyer.

Burch has scheduled a January meeting of the national committee at which he has said he would stand or fall on a vote of confidence.

A Deer the Hard Way

KANSAS CITY (AP)—George Andrew Loftus Jr. spent three luckless days deer hunting near Warsaw, Mo.

The Raytown, Mo., man gave up Sunday night and started home. Near Knobnoster, he reported a doe darted in front of him across U.S. 50.

Loftus said he swerved to avoid the doe, struck and killed a 200-pound, 8-point buck. The collision, in a rainstorm, spun his almost new car around several times and caused damage to the machine estimated at $300.

But because the 28-year-old hunter had not used his deer tag, a conservation agent allowed him to keep the dead animal.

Ecumenical Council In Final Week

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The 2,000 Roman Catholic prelates entered the final week of the current session of the Vatican Ecumenical Council today and heard an appeal for donations to the poor of the world, just as Pope Paul VI gave away his own jeweled crown.

Archbishop Percile Felici, secretary general of the Council, told the assembly in St. Peter's Basilica that a number of cardinals gave the Pope money for the needy after the pontiff's dramatic gesture last Friday.

The archbishop said many council fathers had asked how they could "participate" in Pope Paul's action.

"The very best way would be to give offerings to the Pope for the poor," Archbishop Felice said. He asked that such contributions be sent to the Vatican secretariat of state.

He appeared to be talking of cash contributions although at past council sessions some prelates suggested that bishops turn in their rings and pectoral crosses as a way of raising money for the poor.

There was no indication from Vatican sources how Pope Paul's $10,000 crown would be used to help the poor. The council began the 10th and last week of its third session.

J F K Monument Unveiled

WASHINGTON (AP)—Plans for a white marble terrace and a low, plain monument for John F. Kennedy's grave were announced today.

The central theme for the grave site will be the eternal flame lighted by the president's widow the day of his funeral almost one year ago.

The grave in a small grass plot will be marked by a gray slate tablet which the designers said was the tradition in early New England.

The flame placed at the head of the grave, will be directly along the historic axis extending from the Capitol to the Lincoln Memorial, and then across the Potomac River to the Custis-Lee Mansion at Arlington National Cemetery where Kennedy is buried.

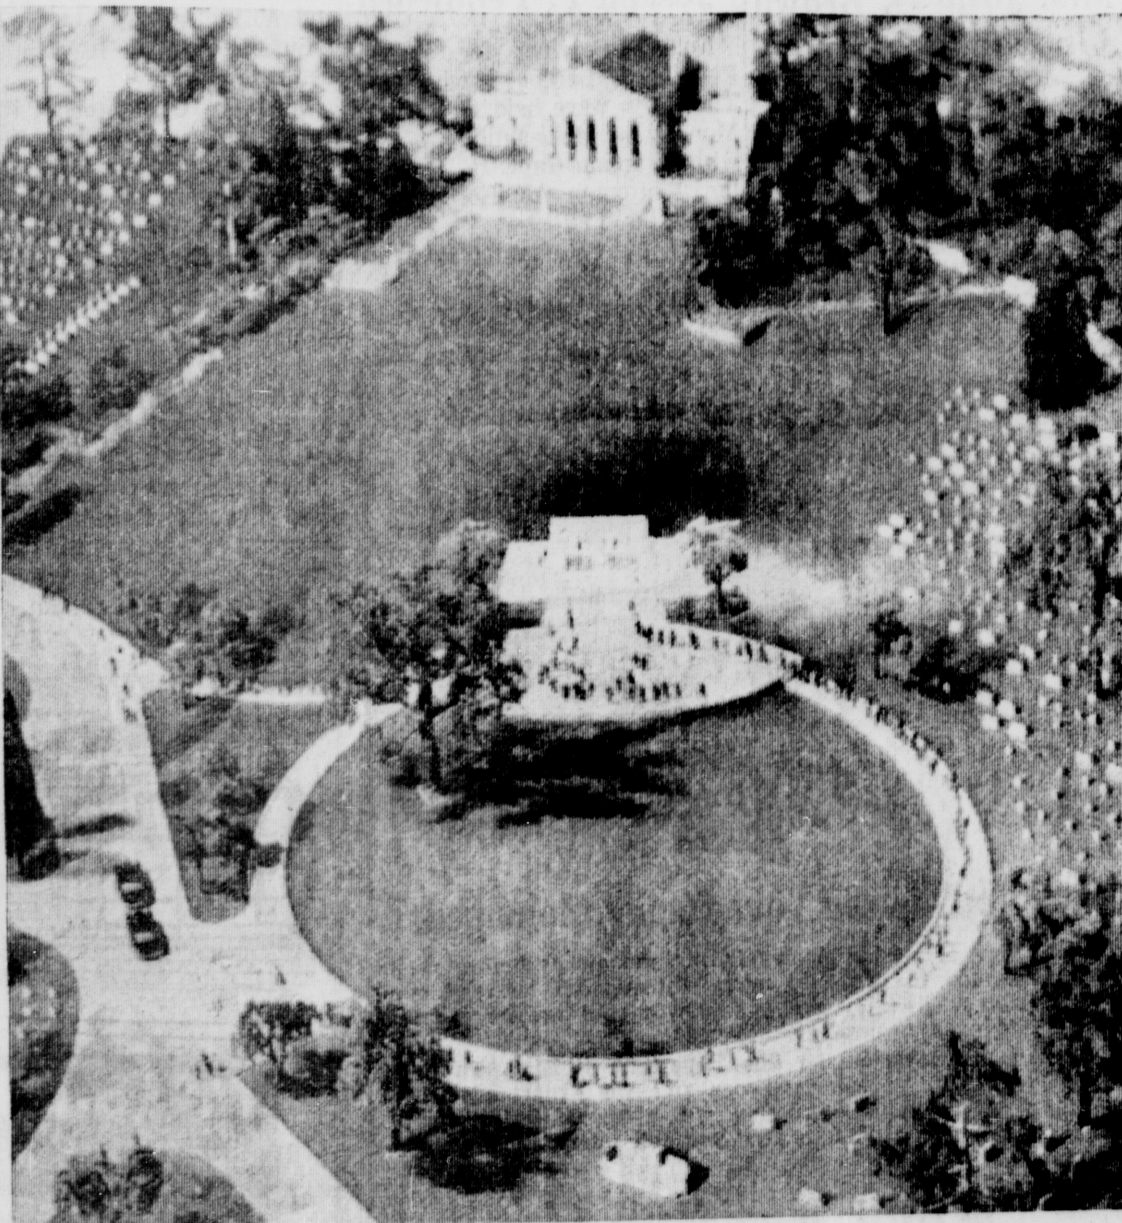

Steps will lead up to the grave site, on a slope just below the mansion.

In the center, slightly elevated is to be the rectangular grass plot where President Kennedy is buried. Its marble "frame" contains a kneeling step for prayer. Within the grass plot will be a slate marker about three feet by 4½ feet in size, bearing the inscription:

John Fitzgerald Kennedy 1917 — 1963

A small cross will be incised above the grave.

The marker for the late president will be flanked by smaller (Please turn to page 2, col. 8)

WASHINGTON—This model of the tomb, incorporating the "eternal flame," that will mark the grave of the late Pres. Kennedy at Arlington National cemetery was unveiled at a press preview here today. Ninety Deer Bagged In State Park Area

Nine deer were killed Sunday in the vicinity of Knob Noster State Park, bringing the total for the season, which opened Friday, to 90 for the area.

One deer kill was made by David Misasi, 12-year-old son of Dr. Sam S. Misasi, with whom he was hunting.

No accidents were reported among the approximately 50 hunters in the park proximity Sunday.

The deer kill for area hunters continued to grow today as the following men reported successful hunts:

Wyatt Dority, 2411 First Street Terrace, bagged a doe near Edwards Saturday. It was not weighed.

Small Crowd Attends Sunday Open House

The fifth open house at the Children's Therapy Center at Bothwell Hospital, was held Sunday afternoon. The crowd was not very large this year as so many people have visited the Center at other times, but those who attended were enthused and very interested.

All of the staff was there, each in their own room where they could explain the equipment, the treatments and tell about their particular work as well as answer questions.

Miss Ann Murrell, teenage daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Murrell, served the guests refreshments.

Forest Fires Rage Despite Some Rain

CHICAGO (AP)—Forest fires continued to ravage woodlands in the desperately dry eastern half of the nation today, adding to the already staggering cost of the record-shattering autumn drought.

Rainfall dampened portions of the Midwest Sunday, but the light downfall wasn't enough to make up for weeks and months of no rain.

Communities renewed their effort to gain federal emergency relief funds, farmers hauled water to livestock, city officials planned alternate water supplies and farmers watched their winter crop wilt.

But in the Northwest, snow was piled three feet deep in spots and temperatures plummeted below zero.

Officials closed U.S. 160 over Wolf Creek Pass in southwestern Colorado and Independence Pass in the central portion as snow piled up three feet deep. Ten inches of snow fell in Aspen.

In Wyoming, light snow continued to fall and highways were reported slick and dangerous.

The temperature dropped to 25 below zero in West Yellowstone, Montana's traditional icebox. It was 4 below in Butte.

A 16-inch snow stalled traffic near Broadus, Mont.

Snow fell in the mountains of western New Mexico, and Zuni reported a 4-inch fall. Northern Arizona and the mountains of southern Arizona were hit by snowfalls.

The Midwest drought abated somewhat after a day of substantial rainfalls. The U.S. Weather Bureau predicted a sharp temperature decrease as a cold front moved toward the heart of the nation.

driven by Ray John Jacobs, 25, also of Ferguson.

The highway patrol said the other car driven by Mrs. Norma Fodde, 34, of Florissant, attempted to pass a semi-trailer truck and skidded into the path of the other car. Jacobs, Mrs. Fodde and her son Robert, 13, were hospitalized.

Charles Buxton, 20, of Pleasant Hill was killed Sunday when his car overturned on highway 7 two miles north of Harrisonville.

A soldier was killed and five others were injured Saturday in a military vehicle accident in a convoy moving from Ft. Leonard Wood to Ft. Riley. The accident occurred near Roby about 1 a. m. The Army did not release details. The victim was Sgt. 1 C Edward C. Traewick, 32.

Claude Butler, 73, of Eureka, Mo., was killed Saturday when his car skidded under an embankment on U. S. 66 near Eureka, struck a concrete drain and overturned.

tablets marking the graves of the two Kennedy children who died at or shortly after birth.

The eternal flame will burn to the rear of the tablets emerging from a 3-pronged bronze font. The backdrop for the flame is to be a long low wall bearing the presidential seal.

Plans for the grave site were announced at a news conference six days before the first anniversary of Kennedy's assassination last Nov. 22 in Dallas, Tex. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and architect John Carl Warneke were in charge of releasing the details.

McNamara said the preliminary cost estimates for the grave site, the immediate surroundings, walkways and other improvements at Arlington would be approximately $2 million.

"The Kennedy family has offered to pay all costs associated with development of the late president's grave site," McNamara said. "However, most of the cost is attributable to walkways, platforms, and other facilities necessary to accommodate the visiting public."

"Therefore," he added, "we intend to recommend that the Congress appropriate all funds necessary for the grave site, except for the immediate area surrounding President Kennedy's grave, which will be paid for by the Kennedy family."

This division, he said is in keeping with the rules and traditions of all national cemeteries.

The exact division of charges, will depend on actual construction costs, he said, adding "the family's share will probably be between $200,000 and $400,000."

McNamara said construction is expected to begin in the fall of 1965 and will continue for about one year.

During construction, the defense secretary said it still would be possible "most if not all the time" to visit the grave.

The news conference releasing the details was held at the National Gallery of Art.

Ann Landers

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: It always pleased me that Clyde was so neat. Now I'm beginning to think he is carrying things too far.

Clyde won't let me place his freshly ironed handkerchiefs in the bureau drawer because I don't line them up in a stack. Before he goes to bed he polishes his shoes and ties the laces, bow and all. When Clyde brushes his teeth he counts 300 strokes. I once asked him a question while he was brushing his teeth and he lost count. He was terribly annoyed.

Clyde is forever adjusting window shades and pictures. Last night he insisted the pictures were out of line. I said they looked straight to me. He took a yardstick and measured the distance of the pictures from the ceiling. When they measured exactly the same he mumbled, "The house is crooked."

Clyde's obsession with neatness is making him awfully difficult to live with. Any advice? —PERPLEXED.

Dear Perplexed: If Clyde's obsession remains confined to handkerchiefs, shoe laces and pictures, fine. But his compulsions may spill over into other areas. If they do, I hope he will see a doctor.

Dear Ann Landers: Now I know why you wear your hair like that—to cover up the holes in your head. Your words of praise to that high school kid who gave up his bus seat to a tired woman was lousy.

I'm an able-bodied, middle-aged male, and I don't give my bus seat to anybody. Women demand equal pay and the privilege of voting and holding office.

They want to drink in bars, smoke cigarettes on the street, wear pants, ride motorcycles and be treated like men. I say let's treat 'em like men straight across the boards.

If some of these dames would make their beauty shop appointments for noon instead of 2 p.m. or skip the last round of bridge they could catch an earlier bus and not try to shame tired, hard-working men out of their well-deserved seats. —OUT SPOKEN.

Dear Spoken: One out of every three employed persons in this country is a woman, so it's safe to assume that not all females who ride the bus are coming from the beauty shop or the card table.

If you want to stay riveted to your seat while women stand, that's jake with me, but I hope someone gives YOUR mother a seat.

Dear Readers: I am immensely flattered to have in my reading audience numerous authorities on the Bible. Presently, I am fighting my way through a blizzard of letters informing me that the young man who kept turning out the lights (over the protests of his girl) invented his own biblical quotation when he said, "Man's mettle is tested by toil in the darkness." Please read on:

Dear Ann Landers: I have studied the Bible for over 45 years and the chap who tried to show his girl with the "Bible quotation," put one over on her, and on you, too.

I have searched my Crutcher concordance and my Thompson's Reference and find nothing under "toil," "mettle" or "darkness" that sounds even vaguely similar.

I get awfully tired of people who attribute quotations to the Bible in an attempt to elevate themselves.

If the girl had known her scripture, the young man would not have been able to fool her. She should be embarrassed.—RRT.

Dear RRT: I'm sure she is—now. And that makes two of us.

Two Guest Artists For Music Club

Guests artists at the Helen G. Steele Music Club Wednesday afternoon at Heard Memorial Club House were Hugh Williams, violinist and Wesley True, piano. Wesley True is a graduate of the University of Michigan and Thurman University at Greenville, S. C., and is teacher of music curriculum and piano at Central Missouri State College, Warrensburg. Hugh Williams is director of orchestra and teacher of strings, violin and viola, at CMSC. He is a graduate of Northwestern University and Eastman School of Music.

The artists played Sonata in A Major, Op. 12, Ludwig van Beethoven, Allegro vivace, Andante, piu tosto allegretto and Allegro piacevole, Williams the violin and True, piano.

True then played a piano solo Valse Nobles and Sentimentales by Maurice Ravel.

Sonata in G Major, Op. 96, by Ludwig van Beethoven, Allegro moderato, Adagio espressivo; Scherzo (Allegro), Poco Allegretto, was by both artists.

Each is excellent in his own field. Beethoven's Sonata Williams played different numbers of three movements and particularly noticeable was the style of this selection.

Very ably played by True was Valse Nobles and Sentimentales which gave a modern atmosphere, delightful and technically perfect.

The last group, Sonata in A Major, was melodious and the execution for violin and piano excellent.

Adagio movement was very soft and pleasing and the Legato was brilliant, the melody very sustaining, followed by Allegro Scherzo.

The final movement, the Poco Allegretto, made a good climax to a beautiful and difficult composition.

The entire program skillfully played by both artists.

The guest artists were presented by Mrs. Robert Mason, chairman of the day.

Mrs. M. L. Edwards, president, presided over the meeting.

Four guests were introduced, Janet Reyburn, Ira Bronson, Abe Rosenthal and Bill Bob Long.

● Accidents

Mrs. Ressie Wilson, 58, suffered painful injuries in a one-car accident a short distance north of the Windsor junction of Highway 65 and Route 52 about 2:10 p.m. Sunday afternoon. The car was driven by her husband, Glenn J. Wilson, 58, 247 North 24th, Kansas City, Kans.

According to Wilson he was headed north toward Sedalia, enroute to their home. He said he was "crowded" by another car, and when he pulled back the automobile went out of control, crossed the highway over a slight ditch and crashed into a fence on the Cliff Barr farm. Wilson said as the car went over the ditch it appeared to be headed for a telephone pole and in trying to pull away from it, he learned and his foot slipped catching between the brake and accelerator causing the car to speed up. The car missed the pole and stopped straddling the fence a short distance north of the pole.

More than 77 feet of fencing was ripped down and a brace jerked loose at the far end of some new fencing.

Mrs. Wilson apparently fell out of the car about 20 feet from where the car stopped. She was rushed to Bothwell Hospital in the Fox ambulance from Cole Camp, accompanied by Dr. Arturo Gonzales, who accompanied the ambulance to the scene.

She suffered dislocation of the second and third toes on the left foot, fracture of the little and fourth toes. She also suffered a severe laceration of the left elbow and a laceration of the large toe on the right foot.

Dr. Elliott Braverman operated on the left elbow, setting the bone.

Mr. Wilson escaped injury.

Trooper William Southwick investigated the accident. Bacon's wrecker was sent to the scene and removed the car from the fence. The car had damage to the left front fender.

Mrs. Beverly Tweedy, 23, Independence, suffered a laceration over the right eye and a fracture of the 12th vertebra in a one-car accident near Dresden about 9:45 a.m. Sunday morning.

Mrs. Tweedy was brought to Sedalia in a private car and taken to Bothwell Hospital where she was given emergency treatment by Dr. C. Gordon Stauffacher and later removed to Independence.

Trooper William Southwick who was later notified by her husband, Howard Tweedy, who was on a deer hunting trip, made an investigation of the accident. According to information he was able to obtain, Mrs. Tweedy was driving a Volkswagen which went out of control about seven-tenths of a mile west of Dresden on Highway 50. The car went about 48 paces off the road and the right side and left rear of the vehicle were damaged.

Extensive damage resulted to two automobiles in an accident at Broadway and Grand about 2:55 p.m. Sunday afternoon. Both vehicles were driveable however.

Involved were a 1965 Dodge, driven west on Broadway by Leo J. Koehner, 40, Tipton, and a 1964 Cadillac, driven by William C. Green, North Kansas

Hubbard PTA Dinner Marks Education Week

The C. C. Hubbard School PTA observed American Education Week with a contributive Dinner-Meeting Wednesday. An enthusiastic gathering was served a buffet dinner. A well received talk on "My Philosophy of Education" was made by P. A. Sillers, Director of Elementary Education.

"Education pays Dividends" was the National Theme of Elementary Education. The following program was presented:

Opening Song — "America", Mrs. Kathryn Rayford, pianist; Prayer, Rev. R. Todd, Pastor Brown's Chapel F.W.B. Church, Arrow Rock, Mo.; The Occasion, Mrs. Ozelle Whitley; Selection, The Spiritual Travelers, Mr. Warren Robinson, pianist; Introduction of Speaker, Mrs. D. M. Kitchen, Elem. Prin.; Speaker, Mr. P. A. Sillers, Director of Elem. Education; Vice Marks, Mr. H. E. Browder, Vice Prin.; Remarks, Mrs. Elnora Green, President of Hubbard PTA; Selection, Spiritual Travelers and Closing Selection — "He" by Girl's Chorus.

Special guests introduced by the president were the Reverends, J. E. Erickson and wife, J. E. Gillum and wife, J. Y. Jackson and wife, W. H. Hickman, O. O. Lawson, President of the North Side Citizens Association and Mrs. Evelyn Cox, a past President of the Hubbard School PTA.

The next regular meeting of the PTA will be Monday evening, Dec. 7.

City, also headed west. According to police, Koehner came to an amber light and stopped, while Greene was unable to bring his car to a stop and ran into the rear of the Dodge.

The rear bumper, deck lid and left rear fender on the Dodge were damaged while the right front fender, hood, grill and bumper on the Cadillac were damaged.

No injuries were reported in the accident.

Sacred Heart Finalizes Plans For Book Fair

A Book Fair, sponsored by Home and School Association, Sacred Heart School is underway, in the faculty lounge, according to Mrs. James O. Cooney, chairman. The fair continues through Wednesday.

Members of the association will assist with selection of books from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday and Tuesday, from 8 a.m. until after the association meeting Wednesday evening.

Books of interest to all ages, from pre-school through adult, are available. Toddlers will be able to choose among the famous Dr. Seuss and other stories; for grade-school age children will be books of adventure, science, history, and biography; and popular fiction and non-fiction books will be on sale for older students and adults.

Proceeds will go to the many projects sponsored by Home and School Association.

Parts Worry New Problem For FoMoCo

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. studied its next move today in a parts-shortage situation which it says could lead to a system-wide shutdown of its 90 plants by the end of the week.

Approximately 58,000 of Ford's 160,000 employees remained idle in strikes or layoffs at factories across the country as negotiations continued with the United Auto Workers Union.

Included were 16,700 workers affected by local-plant strikes which were reduced to five over the weekend.

Ford, blaming a car-parts shortage from key manufacturing plants, laid off 34,000 men last week. At that time a string of local-plant strikes was idling 24,100 workers.

Both company and union expressed hope that all the strikes could be settled before a scheduled meeting between management and the UAW's national bargaining committee Thursday.

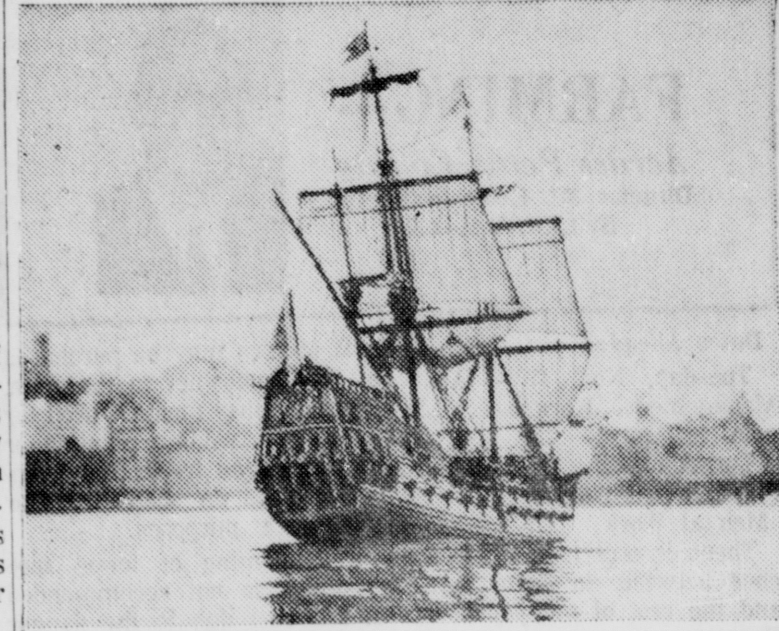

The union ordered its national Ford committee to Detroit to assist in negotiations after top-level talks had produced no agreements.

Local agreements at the plant level supplement the national agreement between Ford and the UAW, which was reached Sept. 18. The present local strikes began Nov. 6.

Two weekend settlements, at the Sheffield, Ala., aluminum foundry and the Chicago Heights, Ill., stamping plant, left five disputes remaining in the interlocking nationwide plant system of the country's second-largest automobile producer.

The unsettled disputes were at two car and truck-assembly plants in Wayne, Mich., parts plants at Ypsilanti and in Michigan's Sterling Township, and the Buffalo, N.Y., stamping plant.

Men at Work

There is still many a difference between the farm family and the rest of the population. The latest report on farm population by the Bureau of the Census and the Economic Research Service underlines some of them.

It's a man's world. There are 108 farm men of labor force age for each 100 women. In the non-farm population, there are only 89 men for each 100 women. One of the reasons for the difference is that farm work remains predominantly a masculine operation. Also, many older farm women move to town when widowed.

The adult farm population is weighted on the side of age. Seven-tenths of all farm residents are 14 years old or older, about the same proportion as in the city. But the number of farm men and women 45 to 64 years old is greater than the younger working population.

By contrast, in the nonfarm population, 25 to 44 year-olds outnumber the older segment of the working population by more than a fourth.

Unemployment may be masked on the farm. Unemployment rates are about twice as high off the farm as they are on it. But the figures are no measure of relative well-being to the two segments of the population. Self-employed farmers may, for instance, struggle along with not enough work to do and too little income. Furthermore, the part-time farmer is still listed as employed when he loses his off-farm job, even though he may have relied heavily on such work for his income.

General unemployment may strike more directly at the women in the farm population than the men. The unemployment rate for farm women is about double the rate for farm men. In the nonfarm labor force, the unemployment rate for women is only about a sixth greater than for men.

Order Tree and Shrub Seedlings
Do you intend to plant some forest trees or wildlife shrubs next spring? If so, the application blanks for ordering these seedlings are now available at all County Extension Centers.

It will pay to place your order as soon as possible because, as many have learned from experience, the supplies of some species are exhausted early in the season. Orders are given priority according to the dates upon which they are received.

The Missouri Conservation Commission grows the planting stock which is distributed through this cooperative program. They have approximately 15 million plants available for planting next spring. There is a good supply of shortleaf pine, which is the best species for extensive forestry planting in southern Missouri. There are also Scotch and jack pines which are used primarily for Christmas trees and windbreaks. In addition, there are red cedar, black walnut, cottonwood, yellow poplar, sweetgum, sycamore, multiflora rose and other species which have been planted successfully in Missouri for several years.

The prices for tree and shrub seedlings vary from five to fifteen dollars per thousand delivered to the county. However, there has been a significant change in the purchase of these seedlings this year. A minimum charge of $2 has been established. Small orders cost approximately as much to pack and ship as larger orders, and nursery costs on these shipments have become prohibitive. So, the individual who wishes to purchase only 50 or 100 seedlings will have to pay at least $2 for them.

The weather and other factors may cause the loss of trees in plantations, but quite often such losses are due to poor choice of species for the soil and climatic conditions where the seedlings are planted. "Before You Order Tree Seedlings" is the title of University of Missouri Guide sheet number 5006. It was prepared to help you select the proper species of trees and shrubs for planting in your part of the country. It contains a map, discussion of each planting area, and a chart showing uses of the various tree and shrub species. Your County Extension Center will have a copy of Guide 5006 for you when you go to his office to order seedlings. Or, you may write to the Extension Mailing Room, 17 Waters Hall, Columbia, for a copy.

Seedlings of any of the available species may be purchased by any landowner in the state. However, they must be used for forestry or wildlife planting or for Christmas trees. They cannot be used for shade trees or ornamental purposes.

Fall planting of forest tree seedlings is not recommended in Missouri due to the danger of frost heaving and rabbit damage. Therefore, seedlings won't be shipped until the proper time for planting in this section of the state next spring.

So, if you intend to plant trees or shrubs next spring, make your plans and preparations now. Then, drop by your County Extension Center as soon as possible and get your order on file. Be sure to ask for a copy of Guide Sheet 5006, entitled "Before You Order Tree Seedlings." The information in this publication may save you the expense and labor of planting trees which are not adapted to your section of the state, or some species which is not suitable for the use you intend to make of the trees after they are grown.

Sorghum Stubble Danger

Much grain sorghum in Pettis has already been harvested. Some livestock men are asking about dangers they might encounter if their cattle are pastured on the sorghum stubble.

University of Missouri Extension Veterinarian Fayne Oberst says there are three principal dangers to cattle pastured on grain sorghum stubble.

First—they may overeat grain that failed to be picked up in harvesting—and suffer from toxic indigestion.

Second—for about two weeks after frost the stubble may contain prussic acid—which is quite toxic and may cause sudden death. Second growth plants are potentially most dangerous.

Third—there's the possibility the sorghum plants and weeds in the fields may contain high levels of nitrate.

Signs caused by either prussic acid or nitrate toxicity may appear almost identical. This is why your veterinarian is especially concerned in determining the exact cause.

So be careful when you pasture sorghum stubble fields.

Locate a Well
With this dry weather, several wells are being dug over the county.

Many people want to know what chance they have of finding water when they drill a well. Some have asked where you can find how deep a well needs to be drilled—and how much water it will produce.

M-U Extension Agricultural Engineer Ralph Ricketts says the state Geologist of the Missouri Geological Survey at Rolla has data that may be of real help.

Many drillers cooperate with the geologist by sending them samples of materials drilled through at various depths—as well as the capacity of a well after it has been finished. The State Geologist files this information for future references—when inquiries are sent to him.

When writing to a geologist about a proposed well, give him the exact location—including range, township, and section. Even the location of the well within the section of land will help. Another way to give the location is to mark it on a road map.

The Missouri Geological Survey at Rolla, Mo. should be able to help you locate a well on your property.

Blackleg
Extension Veterinarian Fayne Oberst at M-U says a satisfactory blackleg vaccination program on most farms includes vaccinating calves and young stock in the spring and in the

New Terms In Schools

Shifted for Custodians High Financial Status

By FRANCIS STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — New York long has been known as a city of big financial operators. But hardly anyone would have expected to find a flock of them sweeping out the little red schoolhouse.

Long ago the ruling elders of the school system concluded that it would be better to farm out the janitorial job than to set up a large organization within the system to do it.

As a result, custodians became contractors. As individuals they contracted to maintain and keep the schools clean. The money they received was based on the size of the school.

Out of the lump sum they were to hire whatever help was necessary and pay for all equipment and materials to do the job.

Whatever was left over was their own pay. About a year ago the system came under official scrutiny as the result of newspaper stories on custodians' income.

Probes were undertaken by a newly installed school administration and by Herman T. Stichman, special commissioner of investigation for Gov. Rockefeller.

Public hearings were held by Stichman. A school official testified that the custodians were getting "two to five times more than Speaking in defense of the custodians was Harry G. Mundt, president of Local 891 of the International Union of Operating Engineers. The local represents service tests.

Mundt, unpaid as president of the local but a school custodian himself for a year was $31,500, maintained that there had been no wrongdoing by custodians and that "the taxpayers have gotten their full value."

Late last month the union and school administration agreed on new terms.

It provided that no custodian will keep more than $26,000 a year. Under a new formula based on school size, only five or six will receive this much.

The bulk will get between $13,000 and $15,000 a year. In some cases the figure will drop as low as about $8,500.

Expect Crash Blame Will Fall On Goose

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — An investigative board was expected to report today that a goose caused the fatal crash of astronaut Theodore C. Freeman's plane Oct. 31.

One of the birds reportedly pierced the cockpit of Freeman's T38 jet trainer and struck the astronaut in the face.

Flights of geese were observed flying close to the ground that day, and workers at the crash scene reportedly found feathers among the wreckage.

Freeman, 34, was approaching Ellington Air Force Base for a landing when, at 300 to 500 feet, the canopy of his swept-wing craft suddenly flew off. The plane crashed nose down.

'Bernadine' Play Slated On S-C Stage

The Dramatics Department of Smith-Cotton High School, under the direction of Walter J. McCormick, will present the ten-scene play of "Bernadine" on Nov. 20 at 8 p.m. in the High School Auditorium.

Mrs. Mary Chase, the play's author, wrote the production in 1951 from her study of the viewpoint of American teen-age boys.

The case of 12 boys and six girls was selected by McCormick from aspiring young dramatists at Smith-Cotton in an open tryout. For over a month the group has rehearsed on the auditorium stage, averaging about two hours nightly week nights.

Portraying the principal male character is Craig Cassing, a sophomore who plays the part of Wormy Weldy, a rebellious teen-ager who associates with a gang of his contemporaries. Tonna Handley portrays Enid Lacey, a friend of Wormy's mother who in one scene becomes hilariously and romantically involved with Wormy.

David Harms is cast as Arthur Beaumont, the gang's leader. The members of the gang are Len Carney and five other boys known as "Fudge," "Tub," "Olson," "Mac," and "Gibbs." They are played by Jim Carter, Jim Denny, Bruce Keeler, David Hieronymus, Terry Worley, and Steve Bredwell, respectively. Other members of the male cast are David Schmidie as the bellboy, Steve Proctor as the hotel manager, Terry Feig as the "wolf," and Bill Brown as Vernon Kinswood.

The supporting female roles are played by Caroline Wilson as Wormy's worried mother; Barbara Roseboom as Selma Cantrick, an older woman; Ann Rowles as Jean Cantrick, a young girl; Jinx Evans, an intoxicated young lady; and Carolin Reisdorph as Helen, the waitress.

The play's assistant director, Jack Austin, and the makeup committee have also contributed to the rehearsals, along with other students who assist in props.

Tickets for the one-night performance can be obtained from any Drama Club member.

The court enjoined governmental institutions from requiring prayers in the public schools.

Brennan, speaking Sunday night at the Jewish Theological Seminary of America, said many persons "have voiced concern that the prayer decisions portend the elimination of religion from every vestige of public life."

But, he said, in the religion clauses of the Constitution "our collective society has pronounced its own judgment that its governmental institutions may not officially involve religion in such a way as to prefer, discriminate or oppress a particular religion or religion in general."

Radio Show Recalls Old Pre-TV Days

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Television has become such a household staple that parents often are nonplussed when their children inquire how they spent their evenings "in the olden days."

We all had a chance to find out — and for many of us, to remember—Sunday night when NBC presented a 55-minute radio program recalling some of the high moments of the golden pre-television era.

There was Eddie Cantor singing his closing song, "I Love to Spend Each Sunday with You," and Major Bowes quieting the applause for an amateur contestant in his calm voice.

Stars of the show were Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy, who started in radio 31 years ago with a coffee sponsor — when coffee came in paper bags.

In the background you could hear a real, rich roar of laughter from the studio audience. In many a home Sunday night, there must have been nostalgic smiles.

That brings us to the incredible two hours of special programs on network television this past weekend which concentrated on the Beatles.

On Friday night CBS presented some film made during the singers' American tour — and I've made better home movies myself. The shots were mostly confused crowd scenes, full of bobbing heads, and the sound track was loaded with squeals and an occasional snatch of a song. Carol Burnett read a dull narration with a remarkable lack of enthusiasm.

Then Sunday night ABC cleared an hour for something called "Around the Beatles," in

Girl's Story Brings Arrest Of Step-Father For Murder

GAINESVILLE, Mo. (AP) — A 10-year-old girl's story led to the arrest of her step-father, who has admitted slaying a retired couple on Ozark County.

Virgil Westley Duren, 35, of Forsyth, Mo., is being held without bond pending a preliminary hearing Wednesday on a first degree murder charge.

The bodies of Oscar Kempe, 55, and his wife, Ruby, 58, were found in the hard of their home Aug. 18. Kempe had been slashed and stabbed nine times and Mrs. Kempe 21 times the previous night.

Lyman Cardwell, Taney County Sheriff and former school bus driver, said he used to haul Duren's step-daughter, Kathy Jo Brown, 10 on the school bus and she talked freely to him and gave information that led to the arrest.

Cardwell said Mrs. Dorothy Brown, Duren's sister-in-law, told him Oct. 20 that Kathy had told her several times "about an awful fight her daddy had been in one night when he and the children had gone for a ride."

Cardwell said he then questioned Kathy.

"She described the Kempes' house and said the children had waited in the car while her daddy went to the house," Cardwell said. "She said a man came out wearing blue pants and no shirt and smoking a pipe and that he and her step-father sat on the porch and talked. Then she said another person came out of the house and later there was an argument and a fight and when they left the two people were lying on the ground."

Cardwell said he got a search warrant and found a pocket knife and a bloody shirt in the Durens' house. The two items are being processed by the Highway Patrol laboratory in Jefferson City.

Cardwell took Kathy Jo to Gainesville and met Sheriff Kelly Sallee of Ozark County. They went to the Kempe home, and Kathy told them that was where the fight occurred, Cardwell said.

"I gave her two pieces of string and told her to place them where she had seen the persons lying on the ground," Cardwell said. "The yard is pretty large, but she put the strings within two feet of where the bodies were found."

Meanwhile, Duren and his wife were being held in Pendleton, Ore., on a charge of cashing bad checks.

Kathy and the Durens' other three children were staying with Mrs. Duren's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown of Forsyth, Mo.

After Kathy told her story, Sheriff Sallee sent a warrant to Pendleton, and he was brought back to Missouri last Friday.

Sallee said Duren took a lie detector test Friday night and signed a statement admitting the slayings.

Sallee quoted Duren as saying Kempe accused him of cutting Kempe's fences.

"Duren said that he and Kempe began fighting and that Mrs. Kempe hit Duren from behind with some object," Sallee said. "Duren said he then pulled his pocketknife from his trousers and began cutting his way out."

His interest never paled. "I don't want to sound maudlin," said Bailey, "but I do have a genuine interest in people. Each season I looked forward to the new contestants who would be on the show."

Jack Bailey's Brief Job Finally Ends

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — When Jack Bailey took the job on June 20, 1945, he was told it would last two weeks. Three weeks ago it ended.

"It feels kind of funny to be unemployed," says the dapper Bailey, emcee of "Queen for a Day" for two decades, the last nine years of it on television.

"But good things have happened, too. I never realized I had so many friends."

ABC dropped "Queen for a Day" from its afternoon schedule, and its owners have filed suit for damages, charging deliberate sabotage of the veteran program. Now there are plans to enthrone "Queen" in syndication to independent stations, starting after the first of the year.

But Bailey is not waiting around. His first job on the outside is a comedy role on CBS' "Mister Ed" for old friend Arthur Lubin, who directed a film version of "Queen for a Day."

"They told me to report at 9 in the morning; I said I'd be there at midnight the night before," Bailey said. "The old ham is rising back to the surface."

"When I was going to Drake University, I played in a band for $75 a week and did a nut act, like Ish Kabibble. One night Ralph Bellamy and his wife danced by and he liked my act. The next thing I knew, I was delivering telegrams in plays at his Des Moines Theater for $30 a week. So you know the ham had to be pretty strong."

The Iowa came to California during radio's golden age and became announcer for "Ozzie and Harriet," "Duffy's Tavern" and numerous other shows, as well as emcee of a daytimer, "Meet the Missus." Then "Queen for a Day" came to town.

Bailey estimates he has handed out $13 million worth of gifts down through the years to women seeking their heart's desire. Four queens are still in distant parts of the world on trips won on the show.

His interest never paled. "I don't want to sound maudlin," said Bailey, "but I do have a genuine interest in people. Each season I looked forward to the new contestants who would be on the show."

WASHINGTON (AP) — John A. McCone, head of the Central Intelligence Agency, says the fall of Soviet Premier Khrushchev surprised the Soviet Presidium as well as the rest of the world.

The reason, he said, is that Khrushchev's enemies did not themselves believe they had strength to remove him until they assembled in Moscow Oct. 14.

McCone discussed the Soviet situation in a talk before a Catholic University homecoming banquet — the first speech he has made since becoming CIA director three years ago.

France, he said, has demonstrated repeatedly it means to stay in the alliance which still is successfully protecting Western Europe. But, Bundy added, even if any nation should withdraw from the alliance he believes ways would be found to protect the interests and security of other members.

Bundy was interviewed on the CBS "Face the Nation."

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a harsh criticism of the "educational establishment," Dr. James B. Conant has called on the 50 states to join in a nationwide educational policy.

Conant, president emeritus of Harvard University, emphasized he was not referring to a national education policy to be established and directed by the federal government but rather a policy set up by the states.

Conant set forth his views in a new book, to be published today, "Shaping Educational Policy," (McGraw-Hill).

In it he urges that the six regional accrediting agencies be "discredited," and that the influence of such organizations as the National Education Association be minimized.

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — The first direct evidence confirming existence of the "Hatteras submarine canyon" was reported by Duke University scientists Sunday.

Dr. Robert Menzies, director of the university's oceanography program, said sonar soundings from the university research ship Eastward indicated the chasm in the Atlantic Ocean floor off Cape Hatteras is several hundred feet deep and may be several hundred miles long. The canyon has been an object of speculation for more than 20 years.

Helping Hand to the Arts

The alleged erosion of human values by the growth of science is such a belabored topic of editorial writers and social commentators that sometimes a scientist just has to object.

It's not technology vs. the arts or scientists vs. the humanists, says Glenn T. Seaborg, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission. Its science AND the humanities.

He cites a number of instances to illustrate his point:

- The long-lost Greek city of Sybaris (from which we get our adjective denoting luxurious living) was recently discovered by using a device that detects the infinitely small disturbances in the earth's magnetic field caused by buried walls or other structures.

Before this, historians could only speculate on the exact location of this once-important city.

Other examples of science's contribution to archaeology and history involve radioactive dating.

- We now know that the famous monuments in Stonehenge in England were erected about 3,500 years ago. Geologists have found where the rocks for them were quarried.

- We know when Hammurabi, king of Babylon, promulgated his famous laws (about 1750 B.C.) which influenced succeeding ages.

- We know approximately when the first city, Jericho, was built—8000 to 6000 B.C., when northern Europe was still in the Ice Age.

- As for man himself, a paleontologist found the bones of the oldest manlike creature, but two physicists revealed his age—1.7 million years.

In other fields:

- Neutron bombardment of paintings is revealing new information on the techniques used by the old masters and may also be used to detect forgeries.

- Computer technology is being employed in Italy to prepare a concordance of the three million words in the great 'Summa Theologica' of St. Thomas Aquinas.

The impact of science and technology on the arts through such taken-for-granted things as books, newspapers, films, radio and television and recordings is well-nigh immeasurable.

Science has fantastically increased the opportunities of the average person to cultivate the humanities and the arts. More than that.

"By multiplying the choices available to mankind," says Seaborg, "and by creating choices where none existed before, science has opened up new realms for the assumption of responsibility."

And it is the assumption of responsibility that marks not only the mature individual but the mature civilization.

Short-fused Labor Battle Sizzles

By NEIL GILBRIDE
WASHINGTON (AP) — An explosive labor battle with a short fuse is sizzling in the wings of the new Congress.

The fight is expected to flare up soon after Congress meets in January. It could be the hottest labor battle since the 1959 Congress cracked down on union racketeering with the Landrum-Griffin Act.

The issue is simple. Organized labor wants to repeal one short paragraph in federal labor law that directly affects every union in America and about one-third of the nation's approximately 70 million workers.

The paragraph — Section 14B of the 1947 Taft-Hartley Act — permits states to outlaw union shop labor contracts under which every worker must join the union. Twenty states have outlawed them. They are legal in the 30 other states.

Jubilant labor leaders have been waiting 18 years for the fight time to light the fuse in Congress to wipe out the 20 state "right-to-work" laws. They're in no mood to wait. They think the hefty new Democratic majority makes repeal of 14B a cinch.

George Meany, president of the 13-million-member AFL-CIO, has tagged it labor's No. 1 goal in Congress in 1965. Even unions that don't get along with the big federation agree.

Labor spokesmen predict a fast, short, hot fight in which "we expect to be victorious." Opponents are led by the National Right-to-Work Committee. Even before union leaders made their move, the committee said: "The hierarchy of organized labor is trying to take a giant step toward their admitted goal of forcing every employed person in the nation to pay a union boss for the privilege of working."

The committee is also talking about court action if labor wins. In pressing for repeal, labor will be trying to collect on a four-year-old Democratic campaign promise. It was written into the Democratic platform in 1960 as well as 1964, but until now labor didn't have the political muscle in the House to force the issue.

What makes labor so confident is that the new Congress will have a majority of labor-backed members in the House for the first time.

The Committee on Political Education, the AFL-CIO's political arm, helped boost 233 House members into office. Labor leaders are also eager to take quick advantage of the defeat of GOP presidential candidate Barry Goldwater, the Senate's right-to-work champion.

Union men believe right-to-work laws drag down the whole cause of organized labor, not just in the 20 states that have them. Repeal of 14B could set off major organizing drives.

The National Council for Industrial Peace, which lobbies against right-to-work legislation, said the issue "brought about a revolution" in the control of legislatures in Montana, New Mexico, Wyoming, Utah, Indiana and Pennsylvania.

The states with right-to-work laws are Utah, Indiana, Kansas, Wyoming, Arkansas, Arizona, Florida, Nebraska, Georgia, Iowa, North Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, North Dakota, Nevada, Alabama, South Carolina and Mississippi.

Strong Labor Climate Is Shaping the Economy

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — A new labor climate is beginning to shape the economy. Its effect is likely to be stronger in the months ahead.

Already industrial production has been clipped a bit by a rash of strikes in the auto industry. And so have retail sales. The total of new orders by manufacturers has been raised by stirrings within steel union ranks.

At the money end of the economy, bankers report credit conditions slightly less easy and suspect this to be due to official worrying over the part the new labor climate might have in fostering another wage-price spiral some months from now.

The labor climate itself has been affected by changes in two economic currents:

1. Technical advances have eliminated or threatened many jobs, thus making security upmost in workers' minds.

2. Impressive spurts in profits in many industries have underscored the fact that in the last two years the increases in wage scales have averaged lower than a few years back.

Labor is talking increasingly of "total security" in job tenure and "human dignity" in working conditions at the local plant level and "a larger slice of the profit pie".

The steel labor-management confrontation won't come until next spring, but already it is affecting business thinking and planning.

A challenge to present steel union leadership is developing and this could lead to stiffer demands on management to satisfy restless union members.

Cusotmers are stepping up their orders of the metal. They want stocks on hand in case labor demands hit a management stonewall and a strike results. Some also are ordering now because they feel that sooner or later steel prices will be increased with production costs given as one cause.

Such metal stockpiling, and any rush to make up lost time from the auto shutdowns, could give the economy a glow. The trouble is that such a flush usually is followed by a chill.

And prosperous times will strengthen labor's growing demands for a bigger share financially, and for working conditions more to its liking.

Since automation seems sure to be a problem to present job holders for some time to come, and since unemployment will stay troublesome as the labor force swells, the new climate will become more evident and have a deeper effect, at least as long as the present business upswing continues.

THE DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Patch Tests Give Clues To Track Down Irritants

By Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Association

Q — Every time I wore a dark blue suit I bought last year, my legs broke out with a severely itching rash. I wrote to the manufacturer and he said that the material (wool and dacron) was handled daily by many employees and worn by thousands of customers without causing any reaction. Do you think my trouble was due to the material or the dye? Is there any way I can be immunized against the cause?

A — You should have your doctor make a patch test with small samples of wool of different colors and samples of dacron as well. This should narrow the cause down to one of the materials or to a dye. If the dye is at fault, ask the manufacturer to give you a complete list of its components. Then, if possible, you should have patch tests made with pieces of white cleansing tissue to which each ingredient has been added. When you have discovered the specific cause it may be possible for your doctor to desensitize you — a tedious process at best — or you may be able to avoid further contact with the irritant.

Q — My nose is sore on the inside summer and winter, in damp weather and dry. It cracks and never stays healed longer than two or three days at a time. What can I do to heal it?

A — The nose bruises and bleeds easily. Its mucosal lining is very thin and covers a dense network of blood vessels. Removing hard crusts can easily cause cracking and slight bleeding. If hard crusts are a part of your trouble, you should keep the lining membranes softened with a thin coating of petroleum jelly. If this does not help, have your doctor see whether you have a small ulcer that needs to be cauterized.

Q — I have a congenital heart defect called patent ductus arteriosus. I am 20 and I am able to swim, play tennis and dance without causing heart symptoms. What are my chances of living a normal life span?

A — This type of congenital heart leakage is due to a failure of the communication between the pulmonary artery and the aorta to close. The size of the leak varies greatly in different individuals and the smallest opening may cause the loudest murmur and the least interference with normal circulation. The fact that you can lead an active life without cardiac symptoms is evidence that yours is a very slight defect. It should not affect your life span.

We the Women

Half a Loaf For Wife, Too

By Ruth Millett
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

From a male reader comes this complaint: "Why should my wife expect me to help with the children or housework when I've got a full-time job to take care of? I feel a man should have his evenings and weekends free to relax, or to study to further his career, especially when he works all day, Monday through Friday."

That's one way of looking at it, all right, the masculine way. But let's look at it from the wife's point of view for a moment.

Is she free to spend her evenings and weekends relaxing, pursuing a hobby or improving her mind?

Without any help from her husband, her evenings are anything but "free evenings." After dad comes home and settles down to relax, there is dinner to get on the table, dishes to be done, children's baths to supervise, children to be put to bed, and so on and so forth.

Is that how it should be, men working an eight-hour day five days a week and a woman working a 12-hour day seven days a week?

Is a man a fool or a woman selfish in thinking things should be evened up a little — that when dad is away from his job he should pitch in and help around the house enough so that mom gets to do a little relaxing, too?

If the breadwinner is successful enough to be able to afford to hire some help for his wife, or provide her with enough labor-saving devices that she can do her work with a minimum of time and effort, that's another story.

But the average 40-hour-a-week husband with an 84-hour-a-week wife, shouldn't begrudge her help. He'll be happier with the extra free time they have together.

Vendor Loses Savings Hidden In Paper Bags

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Mohamed Ben Ali had hoped to retire this year after 40 years of selling hot chestnuts, peanuts and popcorn from his pushcart.

Saturday night burglars stole what he called his life savings of $24,000. The money included $10,000 in coins, stuffed into peanut bags and hidden in shopping bags.

"I saved and saved and saved — all for a burglar," said the 68-year-old vendor. "I'm just a man without a life. I feel like the blood has run out of me."

Ben Ali, who lives alone, has been a widower nearly 20 years. He left his native Morocco as a teen-ager.

After losing money in the 1929 stock market crash he began to store his cash in paper bags.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Old Supporter Walks Out On LBJ

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Sen. Dick Russell of Georgia, the sedate Southern solon, took a junket to Europe last month which may have major political reverberations.

Officially Russell was inspecting U. S. military bases in Western Europe, which as chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, he has a right to do, though these bases have been inspected repeatedly both by Defense Department officials and other visiting congressmen in the past.

Unofficially and more important, however, the Russell trip was made just at the time his old friend Lyndon Johnson was pleading desperately for Southern votes and especially trying to carry the state of Georgia. The President even sent his wife on a whistle-stop tour through Georgia.

However, the most powerful politician in Georgia was absent, touring Europe at the taxpayers' expense.

He planned his trip with expert timing, just when his absence from the political scene would count most. On Oct. 14, a few days after Lady Bird had pleaded for votes in Georgia, Russell flew to Frankfurt, Germany, then on to Wiesbaden, then caught a train to Heidelberg, then proceeded by train to Bad Tolz, Germany.

From there, the Senator from Georgia was driven by army sedan to Vienna arriving on Oct. 17. He remained through Oct. 18. Just why the Senator went to Vienna is not known, because there hasn't been a single U. S. soldier in or around Vienna for a dozen years. The famous Vienna opera is there, of course, plus the intriguing Viennese coffee houses. But that was about all the senator could inspect.

Touring Out The Election

Sen. Russell caught the train to Venice, Italy, on Oct. 19, arriving at 6 p.m. and pulling out for Verona, Italy, at 10 p.m. In this city, which Shakespeare made famous with his play "The Two Gentlemen of Verona," Sen. Russell inspected one U. S. base.

On Oct. 20, Russell flew by U. S. Air Force plane to Athens, Greece, from which most of our troops have long been removed, but which is a lovely tourist spot. Then on Oct. 23, he flew, again by military plane, to Nice on the Southern coast of France, for more inspections, leaving the next day for Seville, the famous bullfighting city of Spain. There he observed the joint Spanish-American military maneuvers.

The senator remained in Seville until Oct. 28, at which time he drove in a rented car to Lisbon, Portugal, and on Oct. 29 caught a TWA flight home.

By this time, the election campaign was

DALLAS TIMES HERALD: Cold Shoulder.

— Siberia doesn't like the class of people it's been getting lately. That icy part of the world which is best known as the place of exile for Russians in trouble with the government says the people Moscow has been sending out are loafers. Siberians say idlers from Moscow have a bad influence on the local population.

Things are really in sad shape when you are sent to Siberia — and even Siberia doesn't want you.

Lois Capen, Stella Holly, Robert Kelly, Kenneth Owens, Robert Evans, Morris Sims, Aaron Griffey, Damon Hieronymus, William Hurlbut, John Montgomery, Paul Goin, Robert Johns, and James Shirk, of Kansas City.

over and there wasn't much he could have done to influence the vote — even if he had tried, which he didn't.

Of course, it can be argued that in ducking out on the election Sen. Russell was merely doing what he had done in the past.

In 1952, during the Stevenson-Eisenhower election, Dick also went to Europe. In 1956, in the second Ike-Adlai campaign, Russell again walked out. He made an inspection trip of military bases. In 1960, Russell went on another inspection trip, made no speeches for John F. Kennedy.

Very Old Friends

But in the recent election many of Russell's friends thought it would be different. For Russell is the man who went to bat for Lyndon Johnson when Lyndon was a green but ambitious young senator from Texas and corralled the votes to make him Senate Democratic Leader. Two years later, when Lyndon wanted to run for the Democratic nomination for President, it was Dick Russell whom he phoned to come to Chicago and handle his campaign.

It was the gentleman from Georgia who was behind those "Love That Lyndon" buttons which appeared on the convention floor.

This explains the close bond between the man who became President and the Senator who has exerted great power over him and over the Southern bloc. Repeatedly, as Senate majority leader, Johnson deferred to Russell. Repeatedly, at Russell's advice or request, Johnson appointed Southern senators to positions of power, thereby incurring the wrath and resentment of Northern Democrats.

This is also why, as President, Johnson has frequently deferred to Russell, why he accepted Russell's very bad advice on the Panamanian crisis last December, advice which deadlocked the dispute for three months.

So when Russell walked out on his old friend last month and went junketing in Europe at a time when Johnson had sent his wife to plead for votes in Georgia and when he himself made some last minute appeals to stem the Goldwater tide, it wiped out an old debt. If Russell had remained, if he had made one speech for Johnson in Georgia, it would have turned the tide. Georgia probably would have gone Democratic. Instead it went Republican for the first time in post-Civil War history.

Friends of the President say this was a great blessing, that Dick Russell did LBJ a great favor. For no longer need he feel obligated to the man who has so strongly influenced him in the past.

The Mature Parent

So He Won't Go To Bed, Eh?

By Mrs. Muriel Lawrence
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Dear Mrs. Lawrence: Because our 4-year-old boy was becoming a bedtime problem, we recently let him stay up until he got so tired he fell asleep on the sofa. We hoped he would remember how tired he'd been and accept his own bedtime more willingly. But he is fighting it harder than ever. For more than a week now we have had to let him stay up long past his bedtime, wait for him to fall asleep and then carry him upstairs to his crib. How can we break this routine we should never have started?

ANSWER: By a more honest treatment of the child. You and his father are not solely interested in his comfort and pleasure, you know. If you were, where or when he sleeps would not matter to you, so long as he slept comfortably and happily. If his delight were your sole concern, it would compel you to let him sleep on your downstairs sofa so long as the arrangement pleased him. But you want him off it.

You want him removed, separated from you and his father at a bedtime hour that leaves you time and privacy to be together without the inconvenient presence of your child. If you can accept this desire as a natural and reasonable one, you may be able to so present it to your son that it appears natural and reasonable to him, too.

Children's bedtime resistance is often resistance against the phony It-Is-Only-You-We-Are-Thinking-A-Bout solicitude of their parents.

Because it is false, they distrust it. It scares them with its suggestion that we may be false in other ways, driving them to cling to us to assure themselves of our presence and making distance from us in an upstairs bedroom too threatening to endure.

As a child's bedtime approaches, many parents, I have observed, begin to assume a kind of pushy salesman benignity. They start "promoting" bedtime, like the insurance salesman who promotes a commission for himself by showing tender concern for our future welfare.

At bedtime when darkness is about to flood in on your known world, obliterating its reliable shapes, you want more than salesman patter. You want the reasonable and natural truth. You want to be told that your world is going right on. You need to be told that one of the reasons little children go to bed is to give their mothers and fathers the chance to be alone together.

Girls Apply The Hotfoot To Tresses

EDITOR'S NOTE: A new fad of teen-aged girls to keep their hair ruler-straight is keeping mother's ironing board busy. The girls lay their heads on the board like Marie Antoinette at the guillotine; their pals press the tresses. Joy Stilley, wife of Associated Press Writer Francis Stilley, tells how girls save the hotfoot to their heads.

By JOY STILLEY
NEW YORK (AP) — All of a sudden there's more ironing going on in our house than in a Chinese laundry.

It's no that our clothes have suddenly become more creaseless. In fact, it isn't cotton, silk, nylon, rayon, dacron, wool or linen getting the steam-spray treatment. It's hair.

Our high school sophomore daughter and her friends are steamed up hotter than the iron on the latest teen-age fad of making their tresses ruler-straight. The pressing problem these days is to eliminate every vestige of wave — and pity the poor girl whose hair insists on turning up at the ends after getting the hotfoot.

For years now Gay's room has been the scene of a nightly ritual. Armed with huge rollers, the participants vied with each other to see who could pack the most curlers into a given cranial area. That was for curling.

Now the activities have shifted to the kitchen, where an ironing board is the center of attraction and each victim in turn lays her head on it with the expression Marie Antoinette wore when she approached the guillotine.

But when they kneel beside the board in supplication, it's not for mercy. Their plea to the executioner is to comb it a little straighter, press it a little harder, make sure their old crowning glory no longer waves.

The modus operandi consists of spreading the hair out on the board, combing it as straight as possible and ironing it with an intensity designed to make it stay that way.

All of a sudden, after years of complete disinterest in standing over a hot iron, Gay finds it the most indispensable appliance in the house, superseding even the television in her affections.

Miss Connie Gracy, Danny Bond Married in October 25 Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Connie Gracy and Mr. Danny L. Bond was solemnized at two o'clock Sunday afternoon, Oct. 25 at the Westminster Presbyterian Church, Versailles. Dr. R. V. Beesley, pastor, read the double ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Gracy, High Point, are parents of the bride. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wyeth A. Bond, Star Route, Eldon.

Greenery entwined two double-branched candelabra, which held lighted tapers. A large altar basket held white gladioli.

Traditional wedding selections were played by Mrs. Bill Bauer, organist. Miss Sandra Tising, pianist, cousin of the bride, was accompanist for Mr. Eric Thompson, who sang "Whiter Thou Goest," preceding the ceremony, and "The Lord's Prayer," at the ceremony's conclusion.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace and delustered taffeta with an overskirt of ruffled net. The basque bodice featured a scalloped Sabrina neckline, trimmed with tiny seed pearls and iridescent sequins. Traditional long sleeves tapered to points over the wrists. The bouffant skirt was enhanced with a front drape and three lace roses down the front. Alternate tiers of tulle and lace cascaded down the skirt's back. Her elbow-length illusion net veil was secured by a tiara of seed pearls and sequins. At her neck, she wore a diamond and pearl pendant, a gift from the bridegroom. The bride carried a white orchid with streamers on a white Bible. The Bible was a gift from High Point Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Claude Hayes, Clinton, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. She was attired in a street length dress of mint green brocaded taffeta. It was styled with a scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves and a belted skirt. A large butterfly bow fastened at the waist back. Her pillbox of brocaded taffeta was veiled.

Bridesmaids were Miss Joan Gracy, sister of the bride, and Miss Donna Kay Snyder, cousin of the bride. They were attired like the matron of honor. Each carried a large white chrysanthemum, surrounded by net and ribbon.

Candles were lighted by Mr. Dennis Bond and Mr. Ward Bond, both of Eldon, cousins of the bridegroom.

Flower girls was Miss Cinda Bunch, Independence, niece of the bridegroom. Her mint green brocaded taffeta dress was full skirted and sashed with self material in the back.

Rings were carried to the altar by Miss Jody Bunch, Independence, niece of the bridegroom, dressed like the flower girl.

Mr. Wyeth E. Bond, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Groomsmen were Mr. Ronnie Gracy, Tulsa, Okla., brother of the bride, and Mr. Howard Milburn, Eldon, cousin of the bridegroom. Ushers were Mr. Ronald Richardson and Mr. Luther Campbell, Eldon.

The bride's mother wore a cranberry knit sheath, accessorized with black. A royal blue wool sheath was selected by the mother of the bridegroom. Her accessories matched. Both mothers wore white carnation corsages with their costumes.

A reception was held after the ceremony in the church basement. Assisting were: Mrs.

Kansas City, Mo. 64108
AC 816, Phone GRand 1-2390.

AN OPEN LETTER.... TO CITIZENS OF SEDALIA!

WE'D LIKE TO DISCUSS SOMETHING THAT IS VERY IMPORTANT

For years COMMONWEALTH has been engaged in a variety of diversified business ventures in the world of entertainment! We have done this, in every instance, with the dedicated ambitions of (1) being a good citizen and neighbor and (2) to provide SERVICE and ENTERTAINMENT, in its best form, as desired by the public. We feel we have accomplished these objectives, and our theatres are a center of the community, and that they render good service, finer comforts and the best in entertainment!

WE RECOGNIZE A PROBLEM THAT NEEDS IMPROVEMENT!

Early this year, our expert electronic engineers told us that A COMMUNITY ANTENNA SYSTEM is feasible for Sedalia, and such could be an exciting and highly desired service for the citizens of this city. A modern system would introduce a VERY, VERY HIGH QUALITY OF RECEPTION from these TV channels . . .

CHANNEL	STATION	NETWORK	LOCATION
4	WDAF-TV	NBC	Kansas City
5	KCMO-TV	CBS	Kansas City
6	KMOS-TV	ABC	Sedalia
8	KOMU-TV	ABC-NBC	Columbia
9	KMBC-TV	ABC	Kansas City
13	KRCG-TV	ABC-CBS	Jefferson City

THERE ARE EXTRA BENEFITS, TOO!

Some delightful innovations would happen, too! There will be a channel position to provide CONTINUOUS WEATHER AND TIME INFORMATION. It also would supply CONTINUOUS HIGH FIDELITY BACKGROUND MUSIC . . . the kind you like to listen to!

THERE ARE NO COMPETITIVE PROBLEMS INVOLVED!

Sounds good, doesn't it? The service would be a SELECTIVE CHOICE for each individual home or citizen. THIS SERVICE would be provided for all of the residents of Sedalia, who wish to have it for a small monthly sum, WITHOUT ANY ADVERSE EFFECTS ON THOSE NOT DESIRING SUCH A SERVICE. We sincerely believe that this service would be very desirable! Therefore, we've requested THE CITY COUNCIL to grant us a LICENSE for the operation of a CABLE ANTENNA TV SYSTEM in Sedalia.

SOME INTERESTS OBJECT—BECAUSE OF A LACK OF FACT!

A very few have raised questions . . . or objections because of slight misunderstandings. We would like to answer with the facts!

CATV WILL NOT IMPAIR . . .

Sedalia's ability to obtain a UHF TELEVISION STATION! There are 92 commercial UHF stations! Of these, 22 are in communities where CATV is operating. In 14, of the latter, the UHF station was constructed AFTER the CATV service was in operation!

CATV WILL NOT ADVERSELY EFFECT . . .

Sedalia's local TV station or merchant advertising for any interest. We have proposed "SIMULTANEOUS DUPLICATION PROTECTION" for KMOS-TV. This means that anytime KMOS-TV, is carrying a network program, that program will be blocked off other channels, and the program of KMOS-TV, together with it's local advertising, will be carried on the blocked off channels, as well as on Channel 6. Further, the excellent, high quality reception made available on CATV will result in better customer acceptance of such.

CATV WILL NOT KILL FREE TV!

We only offer an ANTENNA SERVICE! The sponsors of TV programs will continue to pay the costs of programs. CATV SERVICE is a continuation of FREE TV. A customer merely pays a share of the COMMUNITY ANTENNA SYSTEM costs!

CATV WILL NOT DEPRIVE ANYONE OF FREE TELEVISION!

All rural residents, and all the residents of Sedalia, who do not desire such a special service may continue to receive the very same television reception now available. KMOS-TV will not be adversely affected, and its broadcasts will continue normally without interference or hindrance.

WE PROPOSE A DECIDED IMPROVEMENT!

Our purpose is to provide a GREATER VARIETY OF ENTERTAINMENT, and a superb quality of reception, for all the TV channels listed above. For this service, we do expect and hope for a reasonable return on our investment! WE DO NOT INTEND TO AND WILL NOT ENGAGE IN BUSINESS AS A TV DEALER, OR IN TV REPAIR SERVICES. TV dealers and service men need have no fear of competition.

WE HAVE SUPPLIED THE CITY COUNCIL . . .

With all the facts concerning our proposed CATV SYSTEM and it's services. WE THINK IT IS DESIRABLE AND IN THE PUBLIC'S INTEREST. WE HOPE THAT THE CITY COUNCIL, WHEN IT COMPLETES IT'S INVESTIGATION, WILL FAVOR THE PROPOSAL. IN ANY EVENT, WE WILL GRACIOUSLY ACCEPT AND ABIDE BY THEIR DECISION!!

Huskers Seeking A Perfect Season

By JIM VAN VALKENBURG
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cotton Bowl-bound Nebraska, already assured of a co-championship, goes after its first perfect season since 1915 this Saturday at Oklahoma while Kansas puts its Big Eight title hopes on the line at Missouri.

Nebraska, 6-0, and Kansas, 6-1, are the only teams left in the championship picture as the race goes down to the wire. Oklahoma's aspirations were dashed when Missouri drove 37 yards to tie the Sooners 14-14 at Norman.

The Huskers, unbeaten and ranked fourth nationally, whipped Oklahoma State 27-14 before a record Lincoln crowd of 49,500. Sunday, the Huskers accepted a bid to play Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl. Kansas stayed alive by nudging Colorado 10-7 and Kansas State grabbed sixth place by edging Iowa State 7-6.

Oklahoma had hoped to beat Nebraska and present Gomer Jones with a co-championship in his first year as head coach. Missouri had a mathematical chance to share the crown, but this disappeared when Nebraska beat OSU. So the Sooners, the pre-season favorites, felt like losers.

Dan Devine, Missouri coach, explained he went for the tie with 3½ minutes left because he believed the Tigers would get a chance to win later. They got two chances, but couldn't cash in. Neither could OU.

"I just wish they would have gone for it — and we'd have stopped them," said Jones. "Losing the Big Eight is the worst part of all. If we had won the Big Eight, we would have been in good shape for the year."

Oklahoma's Jim Grisham was the game's top rusher with 96 yards but he lost a fumble at the Missouri three to stop a TD drive.

Gale Sayers of Kansas had a bad day, but the Jayhawks made four big defensive plays in the last half to hold off the hard-luck Buffs.

Gary Duffy's 33-yard field goal won the game.

K-State combined a tough defense and a running game led by Jerry Condit to get a second league victory, the most since 1958. Iowa State gambled and lost on a two-point try with six minutes left and a Cyclone touchdown pass in the last minute was nullified.

Nebraska ran its winning streak to 16, longest current string in the nation, but it wasn't as easy as the final score might indicate. Frank Solich ran the kickoff 89 yards for a TD 11 seconds after OSU tied the score. The last Husker TD came with five seconds left.

K-State plays OSU at Manhattan, Colorado closes with Air Force at Boulder and Iowa State finishes with a night game at Arizona in other games this Saturday. Crowds of 37,000 at Lawrence, 32,000 at Norman and 15,366 at Manhattan brought the league average to a record 36,290.

Duff, Dave Crandall and Halley Kampshroeder intercepted deep passes to stop Colorado in the last half. The Buffs lost their best chance when fullback Max Martin was hit at the Jayhawk two by KU's Bob Robben and Crandall recovered in the end zone.

The field goal was set up when Sam Harris, back to punt on fourth down with two yards to go, decided to run and was stopped for no gain at the Colorado 28. Harris said he didn't have room to kick.

Coach Jack Mitchell had high praise for his defensive backs and the Colorado team. He said he couldn't understand how the Buffs have lost eight games. Six were by an average of 4.7 points.

K-State had more than one hero. On the two-point try, Tim Van Galder was halted in his momentum by Jerry Cook, then several men rushed in. Middle guard Bob Mitts, who was given the game ball, pushed Coach Doug Weaver under a shower. "You get tired of everybody saying we looked good when we lost," Mitts said. "All I remember right now is that we won."

Iowa State made some great catches to get close enough for a field goal try by Tom Vaughn which missed. Bob Sjogren of K-State broke up two passes during the late drive.

Fans Talking Of a Clash In Flamingo

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Flamingo at Hialeah Park, first of 1965's major stakes for 3-year-olds, is some three months away but already horse-racing fans are talking of a clash between Bold Lad and Sadair.

Bold Lad, hard-hitting son of Bold Ruler from Mrs. H. C. Phipps' Wheatley Stable, finished his 2-year-old campaign last month with a record of eight victories, six of them in stakes, and two seconds for earnings of $387,741.

Sadair, a mighty fast son of the Argentine sire, Petare, from Mrs. Mary B. Hecht's North Forty Stable, still has the $75,000-added Pimlico Futurity on Nov. 28 before winding up his 1964 season. But the ease with which he won last Saturday's $301,700 Garden State Stakes at Garden State Park started fans talking of what will happen after the pair become 3-year-olds on Jan. 1.

It was 10 lengths back to Royal Gunner in the Garden State Stakes as jockey Manuel Ycaza sent Sadair over the 1-16 miles in track-record time of 1:41. He earned $181,020 and boosted his bank account to $387,306.

Most of Sadair's winnings came from the country's two richest races—the Arlington-Washington Futurity and the Garden State stakes. However, he has posted four stakes successes in compiling a record of seven firsts, one second and three thirds in 11 starts.

Bold Lad, a home bred, and Sadair, a Florida-bred youngster who cost Mrs. Hecht $10,000 as a yearling, have met twice. And both times Sadair was third as Bold Lad showed the way home in swiftly run six-furlong events.

Area Men On Memphis State Team

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 16. (Special): A Sedalian and a Versailles former basketball star will be playing together this year at Memphis State University. They are Tim Morgan, Sedalia and George Tankersly of Versailles. They are being counted on to play a big role in this year's basketball campaign for Memphis State.

Tim, a 6-0 senior guard, came to Memphis State with outstanding credentials from Hannibal-LaGrange JC, where he led the nation with 938 points. Tim became a starter at MSU as a junior and averaged 13.8 points a game, third best on the team.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Morgan of Sedalia, Tim was an all-city, all-conference and all-state performer at Smith-Cotton High School under Coach Howard Glavin. He also competed on the school's football and baseball teams.

Tim joins five other lettermen from last year's squad that won 14 and lost 11 against formidable opposition to complete the school's 11th consecutive winning campaign.

George, a 6-5 forward, is considered one of the Tigers' strongest players and should be a big asset in the rebound department.

Mud Locks Giant, Card Game 10-10

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Coach Wally Lemm of the St. Louis Cardinals peered over the football field late Sunday afternoon, saw nothing but mud, and sent out the orders: "settle for a tie."

"We'd have been whistling 'Dixie' if we had tried to score," he said afterward.

The muddy 10-1 deadlock against the New York Giants may have sank St. Louis' title chances in the Eastern Division of the National Football League.

But Lemm refused to second guess himself. Pat Fischer's second interception of the day gave the Cardinals the ball on their own four yard line with 75 seconds remaining. With offense severely hampered by the muck, Lemm elected to run out the clock.

"I'd do the same thing again," he said. "Our chance of scoring would have been one in a million, and our chance of losing the ball would have been much greater."

"Of course, the mud made the difference. On any other day, we would have tried to score."

Jim Bakken, who kicked his 19th field goal of the season in 25 attempts earlier in the game from 27 yards away, had another try blocked from the 48 with just over two minutes left.

The play followed Don Chandler's 21-yard field goal that tied the score after the Cardinals had gone ahead in the fourth period on Charley Johnson's 15-yard scoring pass to Bobby Joe Conrad.

New York had used a St. Louis fumble to score on Aaron Thomas' diving catch in the end zone of a 21-yard pass from Y. A. Tittle the first time the Giants got the ball.

Both Johnson and Tittle had trouble controlling the ball.

The MSU coaching staff thinks that he is better than his freshman figures indicate (8.6 scoring average), and that he will probably see a lot of action before the end of the season.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Orvel C. Tankersly of Versailles, George was a four year letterman and an all-conference and all-state performer on the Morgan Co. R. II High School under Coach Lloyd Haworth.

Rain And Mud Slows Soccer Action

Rain and mud hampered soccer action in Liberty Park Sunday.

In the first game Third National took Adco 5-3. Paul Klover, Eddie Lyles, Ricky Christian, Don Osbourn and Jackie Marquess picked up a point each for Third National. Danny Whitaker, Michael Bader and Randy Bloess kicked one each for Adco.

The second game resulted in a 1-1 tie when Freese Dairy gave Dr. Pepper a scare. Both teams were scoreless in the first half. In the second half Dr. Pepper pushed one to the goal, who slipped. Freese came back to tie the game on a 15-foot kick from left. Both teams found it hard to kick with accuracy in the mud.

Dr. Pepper remains the banquet city champions.

Irish Bowl Bid Is a Possibility

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The feeling grows that the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame, the country's No. 1 college football team, may make themselves available for a bowl bid provided they beat Iowa this week and Southern California a week from Saturday to wind up a perfect 10-0-0 season.

The bowl situation jelled somewhat over the weekend with the announcement that Arkansas and Nebraska, each unbeaten and untied in nine games, will play in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas New Year's Day. Texas, 8-1, accepted an invitation for the Orange Bowl at Miami New Year's night. Unofficially Alabama, 9-0-0 and second-ranked nationally to Notre Dame, was indicated as the opponent for the Longhorns.

That leaves the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans and the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif., as the other major bowls Jan. 1.

A Sugar Bowl source told The Associated Press Sunday that

Colts Within One Game Of Western Title

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Alex Hawkins is the Baltimore Colts' third captain, sixth running back and seventh pass receiver.

He also is a major reason why the Colts are within one victory of gaining the title in the National Football League's Western Conference.

Hawkins, filling in for injured end Raymond Berry, made a diving catch of a 26-yard touchdown pass from Johnny Unitas that boosted the Colts to a 17-14 victory over Minnesota Sunday.

The Colts' ninth straight triumph gave them a virtually insurmountable 3½-game lead over Detroit and Los Angeles, which both lost. They now have four games in which to win one that will make them conference champions for the first time since 1959.

Hawkins, in his fifth season, is one of the most valuable utility men in the league. He plays where he is needed — behind five other runners and six other pass receivers — but his primary job is heading the special teams — the kicking and receiving units.

In that position, he joins quarterback Unitas and defensive end Gino Marchetti as Baltimore's captains.

But in his position of end Sunday, he caught only his second pass of the season and scored his first touchdown since 1962.

The 6-foot-1, 186-pound veteran entered the game on offense a short while before he was called on for the winning catch. It came with six minutes left and Baltimore trailing 14-10.

The touchdown was the 15th of Hawkins' career, putting him slightly behind Jimmy Brown, who has 103. Brown scored two touchdowns in Cleveland's 37-21 victory over Detroit.

In other games, Chicago stopped Los Angeles 34-24. New York tied St. Louis 10-10. San Francisco upset Green Bay 24-14. Philadelphia edged Dallas 17-14 and Washington walloped Pittsburgh 30-0.

The Colts broke a scoreless tie with Lou Michaels' 35-yard field goal and Unitas' 74-yard touchdown pass to Lenny Moore in the third quarter. Moore's score marked the 13th consecutive game in which he has gone across with a touchdown.

Minnesota, however, came back with two touchdowns. Fran Tarkenton's 16-yard aerial to Hal Bedsole and Tommy Mason's 21-yard run.

Brown's scoring smashes of six and two yards placed him only two behind Don Hutson's all-time record for total touchdowns. Lou Groza added field goals of 38, 47 and 36 yards to the Browns' victory that shot them 2½ games in front in the Eastern Conference.

Louisiana State, 6-1-1, and Syracuse, 7-2, will play there although no official announcement is expected until after this week's games.

The Rose Bowl is committed to teams from the Big Ten and Pacific Athletic Conference.

The powers-that-be at Notre Dame haven't said yes or no or maybe regarding a bowl bid, but there's no doubt the players would be for it.

"I guess it would be great," said star pass receiver Jack Snow after the Irish walloped Michigan State 34-7 Saturday for their eighth in a row. "Going from a 5-5 season to a 2-7 season and now a bowl. I'd like it, but it's not up to me to say anything."

Coach Ara Parseghian declares only "it's an administrative problem" and Athletic Director Moose Krause denies saying "chances of accepting (a bowl bid) were one in a million, no a billion."

All this talk plus the fact that the athletic board, headed by University Executive Vice President Edmund P. Joyce, C.S.C., has made no announcement one way or the other, accounts for the feeling that the Irish might be receptive to a bid.

Team officials at Arkansas, Nebraska and Texas expressed elation at being named to bowls.

"It's a great day, a milestone, anything you want to say," Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles said after his Porkers had crushed Southern Methodist 44-0.

"The players all shouted they wanted the Orange when I told them they could have their choice of a bowl," said Texas Coach Darrell Royal after the Longhorns had whipped Texas Christian 28-13.

Nebraska accepted the Cotton Bowl bid after defeating Oklahoma State 27-14 for its 16th straight victory. The Cornhuskers are fourth-ranked nationally, Arkansas No. 3 and Texas, last year's national champs, No. 5.

Michigan, No. 6, whipped Iowa 34-20, and Ohio State, No. 7, downed Northwestern 10-0 and now are primed for their Big Ten title and Rose Bowl bid clash Saturday. Woody Hayes, Ohio State coach, aptly termed it the "purgatory or Pasadena" game.

Stanford upset No. 8 Oregon State 16-7 to set up the confusig situation in the PAC. Oregon State, UCLA, Southern California and Washington share the lead. If Oregon beats Oregon State Saturday the Ducks would have the best over-all team record 8-1-1, although only a 2-1-1 conference mark. That might lead those whose task it is to pick a team for the Rose Bowl to flip a coin.

Alabama crushed 10th-ranked Georgia Tech 24-7 and LSU, No. 9, downed Mississippi State 14-10 in other games involving The AP's Top Ten.

San Diego Has a Hold On West Title

KANSAS CITY (AP) — San Diego has a stranglehold on the Western title in the American Football League, thanks to superb performances by John Hadl and Lance Alworth in the mud for a 28-14 victory over Kansas City.

Hadl, the former Kansas star, had by far his best day before the home folks, with 11 out of 19 passes for 283 yards and two touchdowns. The fleet Alworth caught five for 169 yards and scored twice, once on a 19-yard reverse.

Coach Sid Gillman and Hadl both credited the game plan. "Fortunately, the things we hoped to be able to do fit right in with the rain," Gillman said. Quarterback Hadl said "everything we called worked. It was a great game plan. We got a big lead, fortunately, and ran out the clock."

The Chargers exploded for 28 points in the second quarter. Alworth scored twice in 54 seconds late in the period, killing Kansas City's chances. Len Dawson and Abner Haynes led the Chiefs comeback that fell short.

San Diego now has a 7-2-1 record in the west and can clinch the crown by winning two of its last four games, regardless of what Kansas City does. The Chiefs stand 4-5 and must win their last five to have any chance of first place.

The field was covered overnight, but a heavy rain just 20 minutes before kickoff made it muddy and prevented sharp cuts. The rain held off through the first half, but a cloudburst at halftime and steady rain through the third period made the field a quagmire.

Gillman said "I don't think this sews it up for us." Coach Hank Stram of Kansas City insisted "we haven't given up hope. This club has too much pride and character to give up now."

A crowd of 19,792 watched a spirited first period, in which Buck Buchanan blocked a Charger field goal try. Then came the big second quarter.

Halfback Paul Lowe scored on a 50-yard sweep. The Chiefs drew a 15-yard penalty on the play, San Diego kicked off from the K.X. 45 and recovered an onside kick. Hadl threw a 38-yard scoring strike down the middle to tight end Dave Kocourek.

A Chiefs running play from a fake kick formation on fourth down failed on a fumble and one play later Hadl threw a 47-yard TD pass to Alworth. On the first play after the kickoff, K.C. lost

Bills' Magic Slips Away, Streak Ends

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Key injuries and costly fumbles opened the gates. Babe Parilli's right arm finished the job. But the Buffalo Bills' magic may have started to slip away when they called for the fireman before the fire had started.

The Boston Patriots capitalized on Buffalo mistakes Sunday and, with Parilli firing five touchdown passes, rallied for a 36-28 American Football League victory that ended the Bills' winning string at nine games.

Injuries to pass receivers Glenn Bass and El Dubenion and defensive back Booker Edgerson contributed to the Buffalo fadeout. So did three fumbles that set up Boston touchdowns. The tip-off, however, came in the second half when the Bills made a mistake that won't show in the game statistics.

They sent in Daryle Lamonica — when they were ahead. Lamonica, the league's No. 1 relief pitcher, had come off the bench in six previous games and led the Bills to comeback victories. But, when he replaced starting quarterback Jack Kemp midway through the third quarter, with Buffalo leading 28-14, the move backfired.

After a five-yard delay-of-game penalty moved the ball from the Buffalo 27 to the 22, Lamonica threw an incomplete pass, was tossed for a 10-yard loss on the next play and then lost the ball to Boston's Larry Eisenhower on the 5.

Parilli immediately flipped a five-yard scoring pass to Gino a fumble and Alworth scored on the reverse.

"Our toss play (a flat pass to the halfback) set them up," Hadl explained. "They were going out to cover it so I called the reverse off the toss play."

State Wins MIAA Title

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

William Jewell defeated Missouri Valley, 24-14, in a battle between teams that hadn't lost in MCAU play and Kirkville state clinched the MIAA football crown with a 38-7 victory over Warrensburg State to high light weekend action in Missouri small college football.

Jewell invaded the Valley field at Marshall and came away victorious on Ray Ritchey's tie-breaking field goal from 23 yards away and two fourth quarter touchdowns on Terry Bashor's 83 yard kick-off return and a 22 yard jaunt with a pass interception by Jim Ford.

Fred Fugazzi put Valley ahead when he plunged 1 yard in the opening period and Jewell countered the tying touchdown in the second quarter when Jack Bumgarner, holding for a Ray Ritchey field goal attempt, straightened up and passed to Bill Reichard on a 37 yard scoring play.

After Ritchey's field goal, Valley took the lead briefly again when Bruce Fry hauled a Jewell punt back 78 yards for a TD.

Kirkville State had much less trouble than Jewell in its clash with Warrensburg. Mike Richardson scored the first three touchdowns for Kirkville on runs of 20 and 2 yards and a 61 yard punt return. The Bulldogs have lost only once in 8 starts and close out their season next week at Arkansas Tech.

Central Methodist, the only team besides Jewell and Valley to see action in the MCAU, lost to Illinois (Chicago Branch), 13-6.

Other MIAA results: Springfield State 42, Maryville State 0, and Cape Girardeau State 49, Rolla 7.

In the Independent ranks, Lincoln won its eighth in nine starts, 31-13, over Tennessee State. Sewanee handed Washington a 25-19 defeat.

Yon Cassius Lean, Sickly In Hospital

BOSTON (AP) — Yon Cassius lies lean and sickly — behind the Muslim curtain — looking not the least like the heavyweight champion who was originally going to defend his crown against Sonny Liston tonight.

Cassius Clay, in case you've been out of touch, underwent surgery for an incarcerated hernia Friday night.

Bundini Brown, Clay's assistant trainer, phrases the disappointment over the fight postponement this way:

"Just two days to go and he was so pretty. He was getting evil, too, good and evil like he had to be for this. All this work — it's like milkin' a cow and having him kick it over."

The latest medical report issued on Clay reads, "improving and feeling kind of happy" despite the big letdown.

Boston City Hospital issues an occasional phrase but no one gets by Clay's heavy guard of Black Muslims, the organization which gave him the name Muhammad Ali by which he prefers to be known.

Liston left town with the lament: "I feel very bad. I was ready to go. Clay probably got that hernia because when he opens his mouth so wide, with so much talk, a lot of winds gets in. His hernia gave me some financial surgery."

Dejected rooters began the job of redeeming $275,000 worth of tickets sold on the bout. They estimated the losses from their standpoint at around $75,000. Frederic Brooks, head of the closed-circuit TV firm, figures losses in that field at between $100,000 and $400,000.

Liston said he did not think the postponement would have any bad effect on him and that he probably would not try to take another fight before Clay is ready for the rematch.

Bill Faversham, Clay's manager who favors the fight rescheduled in Boston in May if conditions permit, said he personally was willing to waive a contract clause and permit Liston to take a tuneup bout.

Medical men can't seem to agree as to how long it might be before Clay can fight again. Es-

Warriors Top Cincinnati; Wilt Scores

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wilt Chamberlain is feeling better and the rest of the National Basketball Association knows it.

Chamberlain, who missed the San Francisco Warriors' first five games because of a stomach ailment, scored 62 points Sunday night as the Warriors topped Cincinnati 122-106.

The 7-foot-1 giant hit 26 field goals and his teammates threw a defensive blanket around Jack Twyman and Oscar Robertson to win it.

In Sunday's only other NBA game, Los Angeles whipped Detroit 111-105.

Al Attles guarded Twyman and Nate Thurmond handled Robertson as Warrior Coach Alex Hannum decided to swap assignments. Attles thwarted Twyman's fast break and limited the Royal veteran to two points. Robertson scored 22.

times now range from six to nine months.

Spreads Into 46 States

CATV Gets Many Labels From the Watchful Public

By JAMES D. CARY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some say it's a revolution. Others call it a menace. Still others maintain it's natural, healthy economic growth.

In any event the swift spread of community antenna television throughout the United States has spawned an argument that is rocking the nation's television industry.

The central issue is whether the Federal Communications Commission should be armed with authority to step in and control this muscular young giant.

So far there is no firm answer, but outcome of the dispute is a matter of great interest to the general public.

For the uninitiated, a community antenna is a master antenna, usually located on a mountain top or other high ground, used to pluck television programs out of the air. These programs are then fed by wire into the homes of those subscribing to the system's service at a monthly cost that may range from $2.50 to $6.50.

This type of service came rolling down out of the hills of Pennsylvania and Oregon in 1949 and 1950, largely as a means of piping television into areas that could not otherwise receive a usable signal.

No one seems to question such operations.

But, say the opponents, the community antenna or CATV systems, didn't stop there. They were soon spreading into the hearts of cities already supporting one or more television stations, or hoping to support one soon.

This competition — which can offer subscribers a much greater number of programs and channels — comes from investors not subject to licensing by the Federal Communications Act. Only a local franchise is required.

From a mere handful a little over a decade ago they have exploded into 1,300 systems serving more than 3,300,000 people in 46 states and pulling in about $51 million a year in revenue.

With an estimated 15,000 homes being added to CATV systems each month, distress signals are beginning to fly in some parts of the television industry.

Morton Leslie, acting chairman of the Television Accessory Manufacturers Institute, estimates CATV systems have reduced sales of home antennas about 15 per cent. The institute wants the CATV systems put under strict federal licensing.

Some regular television broadcasters not holding simultaneous investments in CATV systems also favor regulation because the systems are giving them fierce competition for audiences.

Explosion Is Fatal To Club Operator

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — The operator of a private club was burned fatally Saturday night in an explosion that wrecked the interior of the place.

Tommy Joyce, 39, alone in the building, was found unconscious by firemen, who arrived quickly from their station nearby on Southwest boulevard.

Police said there was an empty gasoline can under the bar and a heavy odor of gasoline in the building. Both the front and back doors, padlocked from the inside, were blown out.

In Joyce's car in a parking lot were his keys to the building, his wristwatch and car keys.

World News In Brief

KHARTOUM, Sudan (AP) — Gen. Ibrahim Abboud has turned the Sudanese presidency over to the new civilian Cabinet and quit as commander of the armed forces after renewed demonstrations last week against military influence in government.

Abboud, 64, took a figurehead role after a student revolt last month paved the way for a civilian regime. Under pressure from the Cabinet, he agreed Saturday to retire. He had taken power as head of a military government in 1958.

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP) — Gen. Francisco Franco, Spain's chief of state, has demanded that the Danish government explain why it took no action against demonstrators who burned him in effigy last month in front of the Spanish Embassy in Copenhagen.

Justice Minister K. Axel Nielsen told Parliament last week the government planned to take no action. The demonstrators were protesting a jail sentence given in Spain to Carlos Alvarez, a poet convicted of distributing material slanderous to Spain to foreign newspapers.

CANBERRA, Australia (AP) — Prime Minister Sir Robert Menzies expressed doubt today that Indonesia could explode an atomic bomb next year.

Brig. Gen. Hartono, director of the Indonesian army logistic service, said Saturday that Indonesia plans to launch home-made guided missiles and explode an A-bomb some time next year.

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — Ex-Premier David Ben-Gurion quit the central committee of Israel's ruling Mapai party Sunday night after accusing it of illegally shelving his program for electoral reforms.

The committee approved Premier Levi Eshkol's proposal to shelve the program for four years. This was demanded by the left-wing Ahdut Avoda party, a member of the coalition government, because the party would lose parliamentary seats.

Heavy Lightning Damage Counted By Sports Writer

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Lightning caused an estimated $25,000 damage to the home of Ernest Mehl, Kansas City Star sports editor, early Sunday in suburban Leawood, Kan.

The estimate was made by Max O'Brien, Leawood fire chief.

"I've seen a lot of strikes by lightning, but nothing like this before," O'Brien said. "It just looked like an explosion."

Mehl and his wife, asleep at the time, were not hurt.

There was on fire. The lightning tore a hole 5 by 15 feet in the roof and bulged the walls. Dishes toppled from cupboards and chandeliers were smashed.

Mehl said two-thirds of the roof will have to be replaced and nearly every room in the large ranch home needs repairs.

Two other homes were struck during the storm, causing slight damage. Four transformers were knocked out, and 500 homes were without electricity nearly four hours after a 13,000-volt cable was struck.

Wounded Deer Dies At Family's Door

HALEAH, Fla. (AP) — The E.L. Westbrook family had venison today—delivered to their door.

The 125-pound buck with five-inch antler points apparently wandered miles from its Everglades habitat after it was wounded. Carolyn, 10, and Alan Hasker, 6, found the deer lying on their lawn Sunday. It was hindquarters now," she said.

Mrs. Westbrook's husband and three sons weren't home to enjoy the meat.

"I've never had deer," she said. "I wouldn't know what to do with it."

Police called the Westbrook garage to make the pickup. Mrs. Westbrook knew what to do. In quick order, the deer was skinned, dressed and iced.
